

I urge the FCC to ensure that consumers continue to have Fair Use rights for broadcast television. The FCC should ensure that in the future, public can continue to record programs for their personal, private use for use.